

Arizona Culinary Institute Student Financial Aid Code of Conduct

This code of conduct applies to all (ACI) officers, employees, and agents of the Institute:

Arizona Culinary Institute (ACI) does and will not participate in revenue-sharing arrangements with any lender, or company that finances student loans to its students

(ACI) does not direct potential students to lenders or delay loan certifications, based on its lender status. Arizona Culinary Institute does not offer funds for private loans to students in exchange for providing concessions or promises to the lender for a specific number of FSA loans, a specified loan volume, or a preferred lender arrangement.

(ACI) prohibits employees of the financial aid office from receiving gifts from any lender, guaranty agency, or loan servicer.

(ACI) prohibits financial aid office staff (or other employees or agents with responsibilities with respect to education loans) from any lender arrangements.

(ACI) officers, all employees, and agents of the school and are also prohibited from receiving gifts from a lender, guaranty agency, or loan servicer.

(ACI) officers, all employees, and agents of the school and are also prohibited from receiving compensation for any type of consulting arrangement or contract to provide services to or on behalf of a lender relating to education loans; and service on an advisory board, commission, or group established by lenders or guarantors, except for reimbursement for reasonable expenses.

Arizona Culinary Institute: current student loan lender programs:

SallieMae

Smart Option Student Loan® for Career Training